

Making a complaint against a police officer

If you think a police officer has acted inappropriately, you can make a formal complaint against the officer.

What can I make a complaint about?

You can make a complaint about any conduct of a South Australia Police (SA Police) officer that you consider to be a breach of professional standards including:

- Negligent performance of duties
- An officer's honesty and integrity
- Criminal or improper behaviour
- Excessive force
- Drug and alcohol use
- Conflicts of interest
- Misuse of information

Relations with the public, groups or organisations

Action cannot be taken on:

- Fines and defect notices issued by police
- Decisions made by a court
- The conduct of Australian federal police
- The conduct of interstate police

How can I make a complaint?

Make a complaint to the OPI

MAIL this complaint form free of charge to the Office for Public Integrity, Reply Paid 85880, Adelaide SA 5001

ONLINE by completing the online form at www.publicintegrity.sa.gov.au

PHONE the OPI on 1300 782 489 (country callers can phone for the cost of a local call)

EMAIL the OPI at admin@opi.sa.gov.au

IN PERSON: Visit the OPI on Level 1, 101 Grenfell Street, Adelaide (via appointment only)

Make a complaint to SA Police

EMAIL SA Police at SAPOLIIS@police.sa.gov.au

IN PERSON by requesting a SA Police officer take your complaint

What will happen to my complaint?

Your complaint will be referred to the Internal Investigation Section (IIS) of SA Police, unless it is referred to the Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC).

Complaints referred to IIS are subject to oversight by the OPI.

The IIS will assess your complaint to determine the most appropriate action.

That action may include:

A full investigation

A management resolution process

No further action

If the OPI disagrees with the action recommended in an IIS assessment, the OPI can reassess the complaint and IIS will proceed according to the OPI's assessment.

How will I know the outcome of my complaint?

If your complaint is referred to the ICAC by the OPI, the ICAC will advise you of the outcome.

If your complaint is being managed by the IIS, the IIS will advise you of any outcome from the assessment or investigation of your complaint.

All queries regarding complaints that are being managed by the IIS must be made to the IIS. The OPI will not be able to update and advise you on matters that are with the IIS.

The scheme governing the making and management of complaints about SA Police is governed by the Police Complaints and Discipline Act 2016.
